GLYNN CHECKMATES SULZER'S ATTEMPT TO INVOKE COURTS

Refuses to Submit Question of Authority to Arbitration, Saying It Is Not Within His Power.

PURPOSES TO PERFORM TIES OF GOVERNOR

Mrs. Sulzer Is So Dangerously Ill That Her Physician Is Hurriedly Summoned to Her Bedside.

Albany, N. Y., August 15.—Merrill H. Glynn checkmated tonight the movement of William Sulzer to invoke the arbitration of the courts in the question as to which of the two is the present lawful chief executive of the state of New York.

Replying to a formal proposal by the impeached executive to submit the issue to adjudication of an agreed adjustment of facts, Mr. Glynn tonight declared it was beyond his power to "barter away any of the functions attaching to the office in which I am placed by your impeachment."

"Any attempt on my part to do so," he said, "to stipulate a method by which it might be done, would properly place me in the position you now occupy—that of being impeached for malfeasance in office."

To act as Governor, further, that he proposed to perform every function of the office of governor "except insofar as I am restrained by your illegal action or by physical force."

The announcement of the lieutenant governor's policy came late tonight, and followed negotiations between respective counsel for the two men late this afternoon, which it was then supposed had resulted in a virtual agreement to take the case to the court of appeals.

Mr. Glynn's letter, addressed to "The Honorable William Sulzer" and "The Honorable Governor," said: "Dear Sir: I have your letter of this date referring to comply with demand this day served upon you by my attorney to be your successor in the office of governor, the governor's private seal, the executive chamber and papers appertaining to such office of governor. At the end of your letter, refusing to suggest that steps be taken to remove a decision by some court as to which one of us is entitled to exercise the duties of office."

"I know of no way by which I could make any such decision, and would justify me in making any such statement. The constitution was drafted to, and I am advised and believe does, specifically and completely provide for the future of the state and is supplemented by statute, passed by the legislature, and now in force."

"It is beyond my power to barter away any of the functions attaching to the office in which I am placed by your impeachment. Any attempt on my part to do so, or to stipulate a method by which it might be done, would properly place me in the position you now occupy—that of being impeached for malfeasance in office."

"The entire matter is in the hands of the court of the state, the court of impeachment. No order that any court could make; no judgment that it could render, would be binding force upon this high court. No member of the court of appeals."

Macon Man Slays His Wife And Burns Body in Hotel

George S. Nance Claims Victim Said He Was Crazy and Should Be Put in an Asylum.

HIT WIFE WITH BOTTLE; POURED OIL ON CLOTHES

Couple Had Arrived at Hamlet, N. C., Friday and Took Rooms for Day—Nance in Jail at Rockingham.

Hamlet, N. C., August 15.—In the middle of the floor of a room in which the furniture was blazing, the body of Mrs. George S. Nance, registered at the local hotel here as being from Macon, Ga., was found today, with her skull fractured in several places and the clothing burned off, while beside it lay an empty beer bottle, the weapon with which her husband is charged with causing her death.

Her husband, who came with her to the hotel this morning, was arrested within three doors of the room on the same floor, and told the chief of police here he killed his wife.

Nance is reported as saying that his wife told him that she was going to leave him out in an asylum, that he was crazy, and had been for years, and intended to stop at nothing. Then she seized him by the throat, says Nance, and choked him.

Whereupon he freed himself and with the beer bottle fractured her skull, and, seeing she was dead, poured kerosene on the clothing and the furniture and fired the room.

Other guests of the hotel saw smoke coming from Nance's room and extinguished the flames and discovered the dead body of the woman.

The man and woman arrived here this morning on railroad train No. 15, and on going to the hotel registered, said they were from Macon, Ga., and were going to Norfolk tonight.

Among the effects found in the woman's baggage was a receipt book from S. H. George & Co., Greenville, S. C., which was addressed to Mrs. George S. Nance, 321 Laurens street, Greenville, S. C. Her shoes have the name of a Knoxville, Tenn., firm.

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of "clear-shaven" on the body of the woman, and on the person when arrested, a government bond for $1,000 and a deposit of $100 from a Macon bank, $1,000 deposited in the institution.

Governor Refuses To Issue Call For Prayers For Rain

Their Efficacy in Case of Drouth Is Doubtful by the Chief Executive of Parched Kansas.

Kansas City, August 15.—Prayers for rain were asked for in Kansas and Missouri today, by citizens and clergymen who believe that anomalous powers are not sufficient to end the drought which has been the southwest for more than three weeks. In Kansas hundreds of persons wrote to Governor Hughes, asking him to issue a proclamation calling for a day of public prayer for rain.

At Springfield, Mo., Rev. J. E. McDonald, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, announced public services would be held tomorrow for rain.

The letters to Governor Hughes were from all parts of the state. Some urged the governor to call that every resident attend church Sunday morning and that everyone make a prayer for rain.

Others urged that the proclamation be issued that if the entire citizenry of the state would join in prayer at his home or church.

PROBERS SHOCKED BY PAGE'S CHARGES AGAINST M'DERMOTT

Illinois Congressman Received $7,500 From Washington Pawnbrokers for Opposing Bill, Declares McMichael.

SAYS M'DERMOTT ASKED HIM TO TAKE THE BLAME

Representative Offered to Pay Him $100 a Month if He Were Caught and "Sent Down the River."

Washington, August 15.—In a dramatic statement, I. H. McMichael, chairman of the committee on the house of representatives, tonight presented to the house lobby investigating committee a sweeping charge of corruption against Representative James E. McDermott, of Illinois, for years his opponent. With intense bitterness McMichael in picturesque language corroborated the allegations of M. M. McMichael against McDermott, and made additional charges, at times shocking the committee and spectators with outbursts of profanity and slang.

The witness declared that for years he had tried every effort to capture McDermott, had loaned him money, had helped him in his campaign. Now he said, McDermott had "thrown him down," and he felt he must tell the truth.

In addition to the charges already made, McMichael swore that the witness had received $7,500 out of a fund of $10,000 raised by the pawnbrokers of Washington to oppose a bill passed in the last congress by the pawnbroker rate in the District of Columbia. In this connection, he said McDermott had been in New York when McDermott conferred with John McMichael, of Chicago, and McDermott had been in New York when McDermott conferred with John McMichael, of Chicago, and McDermott had been in New York when McDermott conferred with John McMichael, of Chicago.

TRAIN WAITS WHILE MAN RETRIEVES FALSE TEETH

Chamden, N. Z., August 15.—The Bordentown express on the Pennsylvania railroad waited five minutes at Chamden, N. Z., tonight after Herbert MacCroon had leaped from the train and hurried back along the tracks. Conductor Van Marter, puzzled by the strange flight of his passenger, halted the train and held it until MacCroon returned.

"I got what I wanted," wheezed MacCroon as he pulled himself into the vestibule.

"Got what?" anxiously asked the conductor.

"My teeth," replied MacCroon. "I sneezed just before we got to Chamden and they hopped right out of my mouth and fell by the track."

DIES AFTER UNDERGOING OVER 200 OPERATIONS

Baltimore, Md., August 15.—After undergoing more than 200 operations during three years for the removal of a growth in his throat that interfered with his breathing, George McMichael, 71 years old, formerly of Spartanburg, S. C., died at a hospital here yesterday while the surgeons were making a last attempt to save his life.

For the past eighteen months McDermott breathed through a silver tube inserted in his throat. He had been under more than 200 operations, and the doctors were forced to use their utmost efforts to save his life, which had baffled every physician called into the case.

STANLEY IS CONFIRMED POSTMASTER OF DUBLIN

Washington, August 15.—(Special.)—Vivian L. Stanley was confirmed by the senate yesterday as postmaster of Dublin, thus ending the long fight for appointment waged by Representative Dudley M. Hughes.

S. P. Kirby was also confirmed as postmaster at Vidalia.

Many Witnesses Testify to His Good Character

WILSON'S MESSAGE GIVEN TO HUERTA ON THURSDAY

Wilson Admits That He Has Held Conferences of a Cordial Character With Mexican Minister Gamboa.

Limbo this afternoon, with the consent of Senator Gamboa, admitted for the first time to American newspaper correspondents that he had held conferences with the Mexican minister of foreign affairs, adding that they had been cordial in character.

While neither of the principals will admit the fact, information has been obtained that the object of Mr. Lind Wilson was to deliver President Wilson's message to Senator Gamboa late last night. As an indication of the determination of Mr. Lind to conduct himself in the future, he today refused to grant an interview to a group of well-known politicians, including a number of members of the chamber of deputies. The group he refused to grant an interview to included a number of members of the chamber of deputies. BELIEVED THAT HUERTA WILL CALL AN ELECTION

Washington, August 15.—The Huerta government, through conferences in Mexico City between John Lind Wilson, President Wilson's personal representative, and Foreign Minister Gamboa, now knows the viewpoint of the United States and its desires for only a peaceful and friendly solution of Mexico's trouble.

What the result of publishing these views will be, officials here do not venture to predict. The news, however, advances that the Huerta government

MOTHER IDENTIFIES LETTER FRANK HAD WRITTEN TO UNCLE ON MEMORIAL DAY

Testimony Used by Defense to Show That the Prisoner Could Not Have Written This Letter, Which Was of Considerable Length, Had He Been Laboring Under Stress of Excitement Which Would Have Followed the Murder of Mary Phagan.

PENCIL FACTORY GIRLS SWEAR CONLEY CALLED FRANK AN INNOCENT MAN

Witness After Witness Declare That They Never Saw Women in Office of Superintendent—The State Brings Girl Back From Home of Good Shepherd in Cincinnati to Give Evidence Against Prisoner—Her Testimony Is Kept a Secret.

The defense played one of its strong cards Friday when, at the head of the day's session, Mrs. Rae Frank was placed on the stand to identify a letter which Leo M. Frank had written to his uncle, M. Frank, on Memorial day, and which was read in her presence at the Hotel McAlpin, New York, Monday following the murder.

The letter was one of some length and contained a request which M. Frank had received from his nephew to send him.

The time element, which is playing an important part in the trial, was made more important by this letter. The defense will attempt to show that the letter could not have been written had Frank been guilty of the murder, or had he been laboring under stress of excitement.

Mrs. Frank was perfectly composed while on the stand and answered the questions of Luther Rosser in a clear, distinct voice.

At the conclusion of Friday's session the end was not yet in sight, and no one, not even the attorneys in the case, could predict with any degree of certainty when argument would be in sight.

The sensation of Friday, had no direct connection with the court proceedings. It was the news that Dudley Howell, a 16-year-old girl, formerly of Atlanta, but who for some time has been an inmate of the Home of the Good Shepherd in Cincinnati, had been brought back to Atlanta in charge of Mrs. Mary Bohnefeld, matron of the police station, to give testimony against Frank.

On the way back to Atlanta Mrs. Bohnefeld did not discuss the Frank case with the Howell girl, and she does not know what evidence she will

Leo Frank Innocent, Said Conley, According to a Girl Operator

Mrs. Dora Small, a machine operator for the pencil factory, was the first witness of the afternoon session. "How long have you been working with the factory?" she was asked by Arnold.

"For five years."

"Did you know Mary Phagan?"

"Only when I saw her."

"Did you see Frank on the fourth floor on Tuesday after the tragedy?"

"Yes, I saw him coming down the aisle with Miss Carson."

"Was Jim Conley around?"

"Yes, he was sitting over by the elevator."

"When did you last talk with the counsel for Frank about this matter?"

"I don't remember. My mind is a blank on that subject."

Mrs. Small, when questioned from the stand, stated that she was led to the metal room to see the supposed blood spots of pure cotton.

"Did you see any blood spots?" asked Dorsey.

"No, sir. They had been cleaned up."

"Was there anything white, like face powder, on the floor around the chipped area?"

"No, sir. Frank Carson got with you in the metal room to look at the blood spots?"

"Yes, he went with you."

"Did you see any blood spots?"

"No, sir."

"Indeed not?"

Never Saw Any Women in Office Of Frank Says Negro Witness

Walter Price, a negro employee in the National Pencil factory, who is named in Jim Conley's affidavit, put on the stand in the middle of the afternoon.

"Did you work on Saturdays?" he was asked by Arnold.

"No, sir. I work every day, but I don't go to the factory on Saturdays."

"Have you missed a single Saturday since May?"

"No, sir."

"What floors do you work on on Saturdays?"

"From basement to the roof."

"What do you do on the office floor?"

"Work on the toilet."

"What time do you generally leave on Saturdays?"

"4:30 o'clock."

"Did you ever see any women come to Frank's office?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever see Jim Conley?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever see him watching the first floor?"

Miss Mary Perk Tells Jurymen She Believes Conley Is Guilty

Miss Mary Perk, a forelady in the polishing department of the pencil factory, followed Mrs. Carson to the stand.

"Did you know Frank and his general character?" she was asked by Mr. Arnold.

"Yes, for five years."

"Is it good or bad?"

"Good."

"Did you know Jim Conley?"

"Yes, I saw him."

"Did you see him on the day of the murder, and he tucked his head and walked away?"

"No, sir. I saw him on the day of the murder, and he tucked his head and walked away."

Mother of Frank Takes Stand To Identify Letter Son Wrote

The more or less listless curiosity of the courtroom spectators was suddenly aroused during the afternoon until the last witness was called, who was Mrs. Frank, of Brooklyn, N. Y., the mother of Leo M. Frank.

Not the slightest indignation had been given that Mrs. Frank would be called to the stand, and a whisper of surprise spread over the room as the judge-eyed mother, weary with the many days through which she has patiently sat and heard every conceivable silent cast at the name of her son, slowly ascended the stand.

As she held up her head to take the oath there was a glimmer of the hope in her eyes that now she might be able to say some word which might help or at least comfort her son.

"Are you the mother of Leo Frank?"

"Yes, I am."

"Where do you live?"

"In Brooklyn."

"When did you move from Brooklyn to New York?"

"I moved there in 1908."

"Did you ever see Leo Frank in New York?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever see him in New York?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever see him in New York?"

"No, sir."

"Did you ever see him in New York?"

"No, sir."

Letter Was Important. Arnold replied that it was extremely important that the letter be read, as it was the only one of the kind. He stated that the letter was written by Frank to his mother, and that it was the only one of the kind. He stated that the letter was written by Frank to his mother, and that it was the only one of the kind.

Traveling Salesman for Montag's Tells of Conversation With Frank

Harry Gotschman, a traveling salesman for Montag's, took the stand to tell of an conversation he had had with Frank.

"Did you remember seeing Frank on April 10?" he was asked by Mr. Arnold.

"Yes, I saw him at Montag's about 10 o'clock."

"Did you talk with him?"

"Yes, I was at the desk in the office and he came over to speak to me. I asked him of two important orders which he had placed with me. He said that if I would come at 2 o'clock that afternoon he would speak to me."

"Did you go to see Frank?"

Maid in Schiff Home Tells of Phone Message From Frank

Emma Hill, a maid in the Schiff home, was called to tell of a telephone message for Herbert Schiff made by Frank on the morning of the tragedy.

"Did you remember anybody trying to call Schiff on the 24th of April?" he was asked by Mr. Arnold.

"Yes, sir. Somebody tried to call him like a wrong number and said 'Hello, Mr. Schiff.' I answered and told him that the number was not in service."

"What time was that?"

"It was about 11 o'clock. I woke Mr. Schiff and he said 'Hello, Mr. Schiff.' I answered and told him that the number was not in service."

"What time was that?"

WORK ON TARIFF BILL PROGRESSING SLOWLY

Washington, August 15.—Extended debate over details of the agricultural tariff bill has delayed progress on the tariff bill again today in the senate. At the end of a session devoted to discussion of rates of duty on butter, hay and potatoes, the senate found it had passed on scarcely more than a dozen items.

Democratic leaders canvassed the situation to decide as to the advisability of beginning longer sessions next week in the hope that work on the bill may be hastened. The senate is now working from 11 to 8 o'clock. Earlier sessions and meetings at night probably will be recommended.

EDWARDS OFFERS BILL FOR MILITARY HIGHWAY

Washington, August 15.—Provision for a military highway between Savannah and Fort Screven, Tybee Island, made in a bill introduced today by Representative Edwards, of Georgia. The measure would appropriate $250,000 for the work. Acceptance of offers of free right-of-way and the federal house would be authorized and the federal house would be required to make necessary surveys and superintend the construction of the highway. The bill was referred to the military affairs committee.

NEWS ABOUT GEORGIA AT NATIONAL CAPITAL

By John Corrigan, Jr.
Washington, August 15.—(Special.)
Senator Bacon has made an engagement.

morning for the Savannah delegation headed by William Williamson, who are coming to present their views of the Savannah postmastership. Marlow Lucas, city editor of The Morning News, has been recommended by Representative Edwards, and, according to his usual course, Senator Bacon will support the congressman.

The postoffice department summary issued today shows there were 1,121 postoffices in Georgia on July 1. Of these, 1,121 were fourth-class offices. The presidential offices were divided into 7 first-class, 37 second-class and 140 third-class offices.

COTTON MADE GAIN 19 TO 22 POINTS

Private Crop Report and Dry, Hot Weather in Southwest Caused Advance in Prices. Spot Cotton Quiet.

New York, Aug. 15.—The cotton market was mixed today and demand was more general than for some time past. A private crop report, making the condition of the crop in the Southwest and the hot weather in the Northwest and the fact that the short interest has become overextended. Speculation rather than the market itself was the cause of the advance. The market was within a few points of the level of the late week, with the tone steady at a net gain of 19 to 22 points. The unfavorable crop accounts appeared to have influenced Liverpool before the local opening, as prices were better there at an advance of 7 to 10 points in consequence. The market was in considerable demand for the early trading, but the private condition report, showing a deterioration of 3.5 percent on the average, and a sharp falling off in the crop of cotton in Texas and Oklahoma, was given a bullish impression and prices turned up again on the western belt forecast for continued fair weather.

Details reported from the Houston district showed further light showers at a few places, but there was nothing constructive as a break in the drought. The claims of deterioration in the south, there appeared to be more crop claims from want of the rain, particularly from Alabama and Mississippi. Realizing that recent buyers helped to supply the demand, and there was some selling, especially against the coming crop, but New Orleans and Memphis were both reported to be buying here on a new favorable view of crop conditions.

CORN MAKES JUMP OF CENT AND HALF

Drouth in Southwest Caused the Market to Be Buoyant From the Start—Wheat and Oats Are Higher.

Chicago, Aug. 15.—Corn rushed up so high today that the trade actively considered the question of imports from Argentina. The market closed steady at an advance of 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 cents. All other leading staples, too, showed a rise compared with last night—wheat a shade to 1 1/4 cents, oats 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 and provisions 1 1/2 to 1 3/4.

STOCKS STAGNANT IN EARLY HOURS

Lowest Prices of Day Were Made in Final Hour—Steel Stocks Were Especially Weak—Bonds Lower.

New York, Aug. 15.—Crop conditions again were a powerful influence in the stock market today, with favorable advices received late, resulting in a recovery of 1 to 2 points. According to reliable though official data, the long-sustained drouth in the southwestern belt has caused a further loss of not less than 150,000 bushels of corn since the publication of the report.

According to the official data, the drouth in Nebraska and Iowa, and the loss of the grain in the southwest, and which was predicted by the market, was not only confirmed, but the loss was estimated at 150,000 bushels of corn.
